Designing Mumbai's Future: Top 10 Architects & Interior Designers In Mumbai 2026

Sonali Ashar

Sonali Ashar Designs is a South Mumbai-based interior design studio celebrated for its refined, client-centric approach to creating distinctive spaces across India. Led by Creative Director and Principal Designer Sonali Ashar, the studio brings nearly two decades of experience across luxury residences, villas, offices, and high-end retail. Free from a fixed design language, each project is shaped by the client's lifestyle, brand identity, and functional needs. Defined by spatial clarity, thoughtful materiality, and meticulous detailing, the studio's work has been published in Architectural Digest, Femina, and other leading publications. Sonali Ashar is a selected designer on the curated and very exclusive AD Pro Directory 2026, underscoring the studio's growing pan-India presence.

MuseLAB

MuseLAB is an architecture and interior design studio founded in 2012 by Huzefa Rangwala and Jasem Pirani, known for its bespoke and deeply experiential design approach. Working across master planning, architecture, interiors, furniture, lighting, and product design, the studio shapes environments driven by ideas rather than fixed styles. Their intuitive yet structured process layers light, colour, texture, and form to create spaces that reveal themselves gradually. Rooted in context, function, and human behaviour, each project evolves through dialogue, exploration, and refinement. For this project, the studio incorporated premium wood sourced from Shree Jalaram Timber (Dadar), reinforcing the material-led design narrative.

JJ Poonawala

For over 25 years, Jehan-Ara Poonawala's practice has delivered more than 200 projects across India and internationally, from Zanzibar and Dar-es-Salaam to Delhi, Goa, Pune, and Kolkata. Rather than a fixed aesthetic, the studio is defined by an empathetic, client-first approach—where listening precedes design. Each project evolves as a thoughtful dialogue, translating personal narratives into timeless, functional spaces. Luxury is expressed through comfort, restraint, and emotional resonance, not excess. As Principal Architect, Jehan-Ara leads a 30-member team that blends technological innovation with hands-on craftsmanship, ensuring precision, integrity, and a distinctly human approach to design.
